

Best-selling author self-publishes new technothriller with competition to win a Kindle Touch.

OXFORD May 22nd 2012

M.G. Harris's THE DESCENDANT is a stand-alone novel for adults and older readers, set in the fictional world of her best-selling series, THE JOSHUA FILES. It was the author's first novel, written early in 2005 following the ski accident that kick-started a career as a successful novelist.

Like many first manuscripts, THE DESCENDANT was temporarily shelved when the author was gripped by another idea, this time for a YA series; THE JOSHUA FILES, which quickly had offers from several UK children's publishers and was eventually published by Scholastic Children's Books, UK.

"Once I'd completed THE JOSHUA FILES, I felt it was time to return to the idea from which Josh's story sprang," said M.G. Harris. "I'd been keen to dip a toe in the whole world of self-publishing. It seems as though the opportunities for authors - whether traditionally published or not - have never been greater. THE DESCENDANT seemed like the ideal project. It was huge fun to revisit my first novel, an action-packed, twisty thriller that combines archaeology, genetics and mythology."

The book includes the first clue of an exciting code-cracking competition based around THE DESCENDANT Alternate Reality Game, with a chance to win a Kindle Touch.
